Re: United States v. Raymond Parker, et al.,
19 Cr. 789 (PGG) Defendant #20

Dear Judge Gardephe:

I am writing to request permission for Raymond Parker to travel to Pennsylvania for one day. Specifically, I respectfully request that on December 28, 2019, Mr. Parker be allowed to travel from his home in the District of New Jersey to Montage Mountains Resort in Scranton, PA, for a family ski trip. On the Morning of December 28, Mr. Parker would leave his residence with one of his children and travel to 1000 Montage Mountain Road, Scranton PA, 18507. After skiing for a few hours, they would travel back to his residence that same day.

I have discussed this request with AUSA Mathew Andrews and Pretrial Services Officer Assistant Shawn Bostick, and they do not object to this request.

If the Court requires any more information, please do not hesitate to reach out to me or my office.

Respectfully submitted,

Andrew M. J. Bernstein, Esq.
